Is there anything specific that can be improved upon?

Jason is a great DJ, especially if you're looking for a fantastic deal. We were very pleased with how responsive he was via email, which worked perfectly for an out-of-town couple, and he knows music and wedding timelines very well. His online system for listing songs is very helpful in keeping everything organized. He met all of our demands and did everything we asked for - all for a reasonable price. We're glad we chose him to DJ our wedding and would recommend him to others.
